VENETIAN ANGEL by Ferenc Molnár $17.00 240 pages 978-1-916568-04-4

NEW Aug 2024 Set in 1933 against a backdrop of the sparkling Venetian lagoon, Irma Lietzen, the pretty and indulged daughter of a Budapest businessman, is being taken to see the world by her parents. They stop for several weeks in Venice, where Aurelian, a young man once employed as Mr Lietzen's secretary, is given the job of showing Irma the sights. Irma has plans for what this might involve but Aurelian, it seems, has other ideas.

Author and playwright Ferenc Molnár (1878-1952) was one of the pre-eminent literary figures of early 20th-century Hungary. His play 'Liliom' was adapted as the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical 'Carousel'.

WRONG PASSPORT by Ralph Brewster $19.95 408 pages 978-1-905131-92-1

Born an American but given Italian nationality as a child, Brewster refused to return 'home' to Italy to fight for Mussolini as WW2 engulfed Europe. Instead he went into hiding in Budapest, this is his extraordinary true story of life on the run in a country at war.

The Remarkable Mrs ANDERSON by Miklós Bánffy $17 240 pages 978-1-905131-89-1

A sparkling novella set in Italy and Hungary between the wars.

The MONKEY and other stories by Miklós Bánffy $17 192 pages 978-1-905131-90-7

Short stories, many previously unpublished in English, from the "Tolstoy of Transylvania".
