About BLUE GUIDE LITERARY COMPANION LONDON

Third in the Blue Guide new Literary Companion series, an anthology of excerpts from prose and poetry written in or about London, prefaced by brief biographical and contextual notes. Perfect for taking on vacation or as preparatory reading before a visit—or as entertainment for lovers of London and literature.

Compiled by Robin Saikia, a London-based writer and journalist.

In the same series:

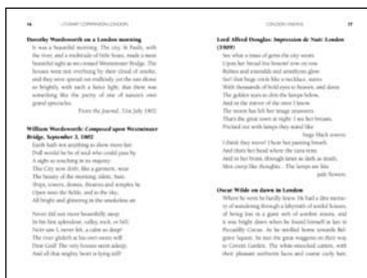

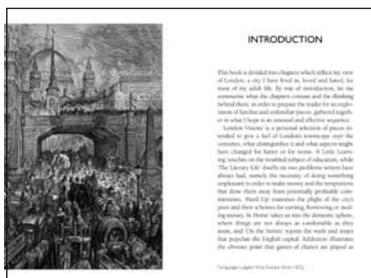

Literary Companion Rome (2010), Literary Companion Venice (2009).

"If you want to read about London in all its delightful complexity (and with a refreshing lack of the obvious) the Blue Guide Literary Companion is the ideal guide." The City-Lit Café

"Strikingly original and idiosyncratic, Robin Saikia's Blue Guide Literary Companion London is a literary masterpiece. Opium dens, Turkish baths, plague pits and a spectacular tiger fight in the East End ... Even Prince Charles has a walk-on part. This is the finest anthology about London to appear in more than half a century." Historian Giles Milton

"Blue Guide Literary Companion London scores well, with Trollope spilling ink over a pompous colonel, and Keats struggling not to snigger as Wordsworth is buttonholed by a tedious fan." Spectator
