Following on from the successful launch of art/shop/eat Rome and Paris, two new additions to this short-break guide series. Relunched in a new contemporary look at a competitive price-point, the art/shop/eat pocket guides combine a great look with the thoroughness of research expected from a Blue Guides publication, making them the perfect choice for the weekend or short break tourist.

This intelligently planned series divides each city up into 4-5 districts centred on a key sight – for example the Rambla, Gaudi’s Sagrada Família, the old Gothic quarter, and the port district of Barceloneta in the case of Barcelona – and gives ideas for a perfect day in that part of town: the main sights and one or two quirkier ones too, the best places to eat or have a coffee, and some original shopping ideas, presented in an uncluttered and navigable format that respects the reader’s intelligence. A good 50% of the book is dedicated to the art and history of the place, distinguishing these useable little books from many guides which are little more than practical information listings.
