Launched spring 2004, the art/shop/eat pocket guides combine a great contemporary look with the thoroughness of research expected from a Blue Guide publication, making them the perfect choice for the weekend or short break city destination tourist.

The art/shop/eat series gives you:

- Selective, high-quality coverage of the leading museums and galleries
- Where to see the best art
- Great eateries, from regional cuisine to innovative new trends, with places for all budgets
- The high art of shopping, with the stores you simply can't miss art/shop/eat Madrid helps you find your way through the sunny streets of Spain's exciting capital. With vital practical advice, and colour maps and museum plans, art/shop/eat is all you need for a weekend of fun, culture and pure indulgence. Madrid lays an ever more convincing claim to being the art capital of Europe. It boasts three top museums within a few hundred metres of each other, all with outstanding collections, and newly extended exhibition spaces. Madrid is also a shop 'til you drop kind of town with cutting edge boutiques rubbing shoulders with ancient tiendas set back in time. And it comes as no surprise that the geographical heart of Spain should be the epicentre of Spanish cuisine, with menus drawing from all corners of the country's diverse regions. art/shop/eat Madrid covers the best of all three areas.

art/shop/eat is a Blue Guide ® publication
